

Aluminium Association of India -representative body of the entire spectrum of the Indian Aluminium Industry, in its brief existence of over 2 decades, has carried out several challenging tasks to meet its objectives and help serve the domestic aluminium industry and its members. It is earnest desire of AAI to increase aluminium production and consumption in the country and AAI has been undertaking all necessary measures to meet these objectives.

With the view to compile information on Indian Aluminium industry it had earlier published 'National Directory of Aluminium Industries' in 1989 & 2004. In its endeavour to update the Directory, Association has now published the updated 3rd edition of AAI National Directory of Aluminium Industries – 2010. Please note the Directory also contain information on National & International standards on Aluminium and related topics, invited articles and other information
